I. PROGRAM INTRODUCTION

The HIT Business Administration Program is specifically designed to develop future leaders equipped with comprehensive management skills. Our curriculum is meticulously structured to offer a balance between theoretical knowledge and practical application, encompassing both hard and soft skills, and providing a blend of global perspectives and deep insights into China.

Students in this program will learn to think critically and strategically within a global context. This includes learning to analyze data, make effective and ethical decisions, and creatively implement these decisions in culturally diverse organizations.

II. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

1. Scholarship Coverage: Full Scholarship (The living expense lasts for one year)
2. Teaching Language: English
3. Duration of the Scholarship: Two-year Program (1+1 studies)

In the first year, students engage in full-time study and research at HIT, where they also prepare for their dissertation. During the second academic year, students work on their thesis in their home countries, contextualizing their research within their professional environments. The dissertation defense takes place in China, adhering to HIT's requirements. Only those who successfully pass the thesis defense will be awarded the degree.
