

25th September (Wednesday)

18:00 Arrival and Dinner (Franciscan Monastery)
Conducted sightseeing after Dinner

26th September (Thursday)

10:00–10:15: Opening of the Conference

(Prof. Dr. Zoltán Gyenge, Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, and Prof. Dr. Sándor Papp, Head of the Department of Medieval and Early Modern Hungarian History; Head of MTA–SZTE Research Group of the Ottoman Age)

10:15–11:15 First Section

Church History of the 18th Century

(Section Chair: Dr. hab. András Forgó, associate professor, University of Pécs)

10:15–10:35: Daniel Johannes Huter MA (MA, PhD student, University of Vienna): Catholicism, Counter-Enlightenment and Violence. Wartime Sermons in the Tyrol about 1800.

10:35–10:55: Szabina Porpáczy (MA, PhD student, University of Pécs): Catholic Enlightenment in Hungary: The Activity of Károly Eszterházy as Bishop of Eger

10:55–11:15: Discussion

11:15–12:15: Second Section

Approaches to the Politics and Everyday Life on the Habsburg–Ottoman Borderland

(Section Chair: Prof. Dr. Sándor Papp, University of Szeged)

11:15–11:35: Štefan Szalma (PhD student, Slovakian Academy of Sciences): Conflicts and Damages Caused by Soldiers of Füle and Szécsény in the Time of István I. Koháry's General-captaincy

11:35–11:55: Gellért E. Marton (MA, junior research assistant, MTA–SZTE Research Group of the Ottoman Age): The Peace Treaty of Szőny and the Negotiations at Szécsény and Buda (1628)

11:55–12:15: Discussion

12:15–14:45: Lunch break (Franciscan Monastery)

14:45–15:45: Third Section

Approaches to Biography in the Early Modern Age

(Section Chair: Dr. hab. István Fazekas, associate professor, Eötvös Lóránd University)

14:45–15:05: Krisztina Juhász (MA, junior research assistant, MTA–SZTE Research Group of the Ottoman Age): Correspondence of István Bocskai and the Possibility of its Network-based Analysis

15:05–15:25: Simon Edlmayr (MA, junior research assistant, Austrian Academy of Sciences): The Life and Works of Johann Wilhelm Mannagetta (1592–1666)

15:25–15:45: Discussion

15:45–16:15: Coffee break

16:15–17:15 Fourth Section

Culture and Religion from Different Perspectives

(Section Chair: Prof. Dr. Arno Strohmeier, Paris Lodron University of Salzburg; Austrian Academy of Sciences)

16:15–16:35: Julianna Orsós (MA, PhD student, University of Pécs): Concepts and Methods for Historical Approaches to the Early Modern Age

16:35–16:55: Anna Kaluher (MA, PhD student, National Taras Shevchenko University of Kyiv): William Shakespeare's "Henry VIII": Between Historization of Drama and Dramatization of History

16:55–17:15: Discussion

18:00: Dinner (Franciscan Monastery)

27th September (Friday)

10:00–11:00: Fifth Section

Use of Language in the Politics of the Early Modern Era

(Section Chair: Prof. Dr. Gabriele Haug-Moritz, University of Graz)

10:00–10:20: Sandra Witz (MA, University of Graz):

Translating Civil Wars: Contexts, Mediality, Semantics. Some Preliminary Observations

10:20–10:40: Benedikt Stimmer (MA, University of Vienna): Critical Discourse Analysis and its Potential for 18th Century Sources about the Early Austrian Language Policy in Galicia

10:40–11:00: Discussion

11:00–12:00 Sixth Section

Economy and Religion

(Section Chair: Prof. Dr. Martin Scheutz, University of Vienna)

11:00–11:20: Kirila Atanasova (PhD student, Sofia University "St. Kliment Ohridski"): Being an Ottoman Royal in the 16th Century: The Princesses and their Pious Foundations in the Balkans

11:20–11:40: Ulrike Fritsch (BA, University of Vienna): The Viennese Merchants in the Danube River Trade

11:40–12:00: Discussion

12:00–14:30: Lunch break (Franciscan Monastery)

14:30–15:30 Seventh Section

Religion and Politics in Early Modern Era

(Section Chair: Prof. Dr. Thomas Winkelbauer, University of Vienna)

14:30–14:50: Sabine Miesgang (MA, University of Graz) Saint Leopold – a Dynastic Saint Reflected in the Media of the Early Modern Period

14:50–15:10: Samee Ali Hasan (PhD student, University of Szeged): Information to the History of the Ottoman Syria – Correspondence between the Bishops of Syria and the Holy See

15:10–15:30: Discussion

15:30–15:50: Coffee break

15:50–17:10 Eighth Section

Birth, Death and Illness – Approaches to the History of Medicine

(Section Chair: Dr. Maria Baramova, assistant professor, Sofia University "St. Kliment Ohridski")

15:50–16:10: Piroska Dorottya Székely (MA, PhD student, Eötvös Lóránd University): The Testament of George Szelepcsényi – The Research Possibilities of Inheritance Documents

16:10–16:30: Janka Kovács (MA, PhD student, Eötvös Lóránd University): From Lunacy to Mental Illness: Approaches to 'Madness' in Eighteenth- and Early Nineteenth-Century Hungary

16:30–16:50: Discussion

16:50–17:50: Dr. habil. István Petrovics (honorary university professor, University of Szeged); and Dr. habil. László Marjanucz, associate professor, University of Szeged:

The History of Temesvár (Timișoara)

17:50–18:10: Closing of the conference, afterword

19:00 Dinner (Franciscan Monastery)

After Dinner: free program

28th September (Saturday)

8:00–18:00 Bus trip to Temesvár (Timișoara)

18:00 Dinner (Franciscan Monastery)

Nachwuchskonferenz in Szeged – Konzepte und Methoden zur Erforschung für Frühneuzeit

Concepts and Methods for Historical Approaches to the Early Modern Age

25–28th September 2019

(Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, 6722
Szeged, Egyetem utca 2., Kari Konferenciaterem)

Programme