

Call for applications and papers: Third Annual IRSI IDSA International Affairs Conference

The International and Regional Studies Institute (Faculty of Law and Political Sciences, University of Szeged) and the International Diplomatic Student Association Szeged organizes a conference in the field international affairs for BA, BSc, MA, MSc, LL.M and PhD students. The organizers will provide panels for the students to deliver their presentations in English. The participants will have 20 minutes, out of which 15 minutes is allocated for the presentation and 5 minutes for questions. The presenters can submit their papers for publication subject academic review. Date of the conference: 19 February 2020 (Friday), 9.00 a.m. till 8 p.m. The conference will be held online this year.

We welcome applications in the following areas:

- Theories in International Relations
- Actual Issues
- UN, EU, IGOs, Bi- and Multilateral Relations
- International Economics and Trade
- Geopolitics

The organizers interpret the areas broadly and we encourage students to submit quality abstracts in their areas of interest in the fields of international affairs and international relations.

Deadline for applications: 18 January 2021 (Monday)

Notification of the receptions: 22 January 2021 (Friday)

Deadline for submitting papers: 23 March 2021 (Tuesday)

Submitting the paper doesn't guarantee publication, the paper has to be accepted by the editorial board through review.

You can fill out the application form here:

<https://forms.gle/9dWXGo5wqqnZ788M7>

If you have any questions you can contact the organizers on idsaszegediaconference@gmail.com

Facebook link for the conference: <https://www.facebook.com/IDSA-Szeged-International-Affairs-Conference-1792363884225381>

The call is also available at the official url page of the Faculty of Law and Political Sciences, University of Szeged:

<http://www.juris.u-szeged.hu/nrti/intezeti-hirek/irsi-idsa-szeged>