

BELVEDERE MERIDIONALE

Invitation letter

Dear Colleague,

The editorial board of the journal Belvedere Meridionale invites you to publish in its 2023 issue a paper on the history of politics and diplomacy in 20 to 30,000 characters, in either English or Hungarian.

The aim of the issue is to provide Hungarian researchers with the opportunity to present the results of their research in history and social sciences to international researchers and interested parties.

Belvedere Meridionale is a history and social science journal based in Szeged, which has an MTA "A" rating in the field of history. The journal publishes first-published studies and reviews. Papers submitted and appropriate to the nature of the journal are peer-reviewed by two peer-reviewers unknown to the author. Issues are published quarterly and a printed copy is sent to the authors of the issue and to the partners of the journal. Issues are also available free of charge online via the journal's website.

Belvedere Meridionale, produced at the University of Szeged, has an editorial board, an editorial board and an advisory board of renowned members of the Hungarian and international scientific community, who are guided by the standards and ethical principles of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences in the field of scientific publications.

For citation and editing, please follow the Belvedere Meridionale guidelines, available at the link below:
